RAILWAY DEPARTMENT

"RAILWAY ACT"

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 7 of the "Railway Act," being chapter 285 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948," His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following certificate, numbered 793, signed and sealed on the 29th day of January, 1952:—

Certificate No. 793.

"RAILWAY ACT"

(Chapter 285, R.S.B.C. 1948)

In the matter of rolling-stock and ever-increasing change from steam-locomotives to diesel-electric locomotives, it is deemed necessary to amend Rules and Regulations, Rule 62, Part 1, Location, Construction, and Clearances, by authority of the provisions of section 289 of the "Railway Act," being chapter 285, R.S.B.C. 1948.

Whereas the resultant stresses from steam-locomotives on rails and structures can be reasonably calculated due to over a century of experience in operation, the effects and stresses set up in rails and structures by the operation of diesel-electric locomotives are not yet fully known, and railways constructed and maintained for steam motive power are at present the proving-grounds for diesel-electrics; consequently, it is not intended to make a final rule but to treat each locomotive on its own merits, bearing in mind that properly controlled speed is a known safety factor.

And whereas diesel-electric locomotives have a different wheel arrangement than steam-locomotives, and as there is no dynamic-augment or unbalance due to counterbalances and rods as used on steam-locomotives, I have approved an amendment whereby heavier axle-loads on diesel-electric locomotives than on conventional steam-locomotives may be considered and approved. A further reason for this change is that diesel-electric locomotives have an even turning moment, whereas steam-locomotives have a fluctuating turning moment which causes impact on the rail; consequently, the load impact resulting from diesel-electric locomotives is considered less than that resulting from steam-locomotives of the same weight.

In conformity with the above, I, Henry Robson Bowman, Minister of Railways of the Province of British Columbia, hereby certify that, pursuant to section 289 of the "Railway Act," I have amended the Rules and Regulations, Part 1, as follows:—

Amend Rule 62, Part 1, by striking out the entire paragraph and substituting the following:—

“(a) Rails.—Rails shall be of sufficient weight to carry the equipment. Broken rails must be replaced immediately.

“(b) Locomotives.—Where steam or diesel-electric locomotives are used or where motive power other than steam is used, the wheel or axle loadings of such locomotives, motive power, or rolling-stock on any portion, section, or subdivision of a railway shall be approved for operation or movement after due consideration has been given to the following, and the company has made application for approval:—

- “(i) Weight and section of rail with which track is laid;
- “(ii) Physical properties and condition of rail;
- “(iii) Road-bed and type of ballast;
- “(iv) Tie-spacing and condition of ties, and whether or not tie-plates are used;
- “(v) Speed-limit which is subject to approval by the Minister;
- “(vi) Type of locomotives and whether steam, diesel-electric, or otherwise;
- “(vii) Type of trucks, wheel arrangement, and individual axle-loads;
- “(viii) Type of service; common-carrier passenger service or freight only, logging or industrial railway, and whether main line, siding, or branch line.

“(c) Speed-recorders.—On common-carrier railways where steel rails lighter than 85 pounds per yard are used, and where passenger-trains are operating over any portion of the same railway so constructed, all locomotives other than steam operating in any type of road service over such portions of railway shall be equipped and maintained with speed tape recorders while so operating and all record tapes shall be filed in the office of the company for perusal by an Inspecting Engineer upon demand; and should conditions warrant, the Minister may order speed tape recorders installed and maintained on any type of locomotive used in any type of service on any railway, but the responsibility for observance of speed restrictions must remain with the railway company.”

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

Minister of Railways.

(Chapter 285, R.S.B.C. 1948)

The following are substituted therefor:—

2. The area defined in Regulation 1 is hereinafter called "the area" and shall be known as the "Nanaimo District Regulated Area."

3. The Minister of Municipal Affairs may appoint an Inspector for the area.

4. The provisions of these regulations shall be enforced by the Inspector.

5. Nothing in these regulations shall require the removal, alteration, or abandonment of, nor prevent continuance of the use or occupancy of, a building existing on March 9th, 1949, unless in the opinion of the Inspector the building or its use constitutes a hazard to the safety and welfare of the public, or to the owners of adjacent property, or, in the opinion of the Medical Health Officer, the building or its use constitutes a menace to public health.

Subdivisions

6. The approving officer, as defined in the "Land Registry Act," shall not approve of a plan of subdivision that does not conform to the requirements of Regulations 7 and 8 hereof without the written consent of the Inspector, except where provision for the relaxation of said regulations is made herein.

7. No land shall be subdivided into lots or parcels for building purposes unless:—

- (a) A method of sewage-disposal satisfactory to the Medical Health Officer is possible for each lot;
- (b) Each lot in an urban-class district is at least seven thousand five hundred square feet in area and, in addition, is at least sixty feet in width and at least one hundred feet in depth, or in a commercial or industrial class district is at least thirty-three feet in width and at least one hundred feet in depth. Where the area which it is proposed to subdivide is of such a shape, or the design of an adjoining subdivision is such, that in his opinion a variation from such measurements is justified, the approving officer may approve a plan showing such variation;
- (c) Each lot or parcel resulting from the subdivision abuts on a public highway along one full side of said lot;
- (d) The approving officer is satisfied that the subdivision design is suited to the configuration of the land in and about the area which it is proposed to subdivide and to the road plan of adjoining subdivisions;
- (e) All road allowances in the subdivision that, in the opinion of the approving officer, form a part or extension of the major road system are planned to permit a finished grade not exceeding seven per cent, and all other road allowances in the subdivision are planned to permit a finished grade not exceeding twelve per cent;
- (f) Road allowances are not less than the width prescribed in Schedule A hereof for the road category in which they are placed by the approving officer; and in the case of an existing road alongside the proposed subdivision, which is of less width than prescribed for its category as aforesaid, the subdivision plan is designed to provide at least half the difference between the existing width and such prescribed width. Provided that where highway plans or other conditions require a greater width, as indicated by the approving officer, provision for such width shall be made in a similar manner;
- (g) All road allowances are graded and gravelled and all appurtenant works done to the satisfaction of the approving officer;
- (h) All structures of any kind, including fences, are removed from the road allowance;
- (i) The land is not swamp land and is not subject to intermittent or periodic flooding;

8. The subdivision of land in rural class districts into parcels of less than two acres shall not be approved except on the recommendation in writing of the Board of Appeal.

Buildings

9. No person shall commence the erection of, or an alteration or addition to, or a repair affecting the structural stability of a building or structure, or the installation of plumbing in any building or structure in the area without first obtaining a permit in respect thereof from the Inspector:

10. No person shall move a building or structure, other than small accessory buildings or structures within a rural class district, within or to any part of the area without first obtaining a permit in respect thereof from the Inspector:

11. (1) Before considering an application for a permit, the Inspector shall require the applicant to furnish evidence of compliance with Regulation 7 (g) hereof, in addition to such plans, specifications, and other information as he thinks proper.

(2) The application for a permit, together with such plans and other information as the Inspector requires, shall be examined by him, and if it appears to him that such plans and other information are in conformity with the requirements of these regulations and all other laws applicable thereto, the Inspector shall issue the building permit upon receipt of the required permit fee, and not otherwise, except as provided in Regulation 37 hereof.

12. Except as provided in Regulation 37 hereof, the Inspector shall not issue a permit for any building unless it complies with the requirements of the following clauses:—

(a) Any building intended for human or animal habitation, or as a place where people may congregate, such as a community hall, dance-hall, or similar use, or as a food-catering establishment, shall have provision made for sewage-disposal satisfactory to the Medical Health Officer, and the water-supply shall be satisfactory to the Medical Health Officer:

(b) There shall be at least seven thousand five hundred square feet of area and at least sixty feet of frontage in a registered parcel of land for any and every residence erected thereon, except where subdivision into parcels of less area or width has been made and registered prior to March 9th, 1949, and where two dwellings or more are erected on a parcel of land exceeding 15,000 square feet in area they shall be located as if each were on a separate lot created by resubdivision of said parcel in conformity with the requirements of these regulations:

(c) Structural details shall comply with the National Building Code of the National Research Council of Canada, except as otherwise required herein; plumbing installations shall comply with Sections K.1.1. to K.6.4.2., inclusive, of Appendix K of said National Building Code; and sewage-disposal systems and septic-tanks shall comply with the requirements of Schedule B hereof:

(d) Any building intended for human habitation as a single-family dwelling shall have a floor area of not less than five hundred square feet; any building intended for human habitation as a two-family dwelling shall have a floor area of not less than eight hundred square feet; living-quarters above stores or in multiple dwellings shall have a floor area of not less than four hundred square feet per housekeeping unit:

(e) The window area in any room intended or used for human habitation shall be at least one-tenth the floor area:

(f) Where adequate sewage-disposal and sufficient water facilities are available, every building used or intended to be used for human habitation shall be provided with at least one sink and one toilet and one bathtub or shower properly connected to the approved sewage-disposal system:

(g) Where land is occupied or is to be occupied by more than three dwellings per acre or by more than three families per acre, if a sufficient water-supply is available, flush-toilets draining into septic tanks or otherwise satisfactory to the Medical Health Officer shall be provided:

(h) Where privies are permitted, they shall conform to the requirements of section 16 (f) of the regulations for the Sanitary control of Industrial Camps:

(i) No open-joint tiling in a sewage-disposal field and no building, other than accessory buildings which the Medical Health Officer considers not likely to cause pollution of water, shall be erected within a less distance than fifty feet from the normal high-water line of any lake, the waters of which are used for swimming or drinking by human beings, nor from any stream, provided that the prohibition in case of any said stream may be waived at the discretion of the Medical Health Officer:

(j) All buildings other than small accessory buildings, such as private garages or hen-houses, shall be supported on walls of masonry or reinforced concrete, conforming to the provisions of clauses (b) and (c) of Article 3.7.7.2. of the National Building Code.

13. (1) Tourist camps conforming with the regulations made under the "Tourist Accommodation Regulation Act" shall be exempted from the requirements of Regulation 12 hereof.

(2) Tourist camps shall be located only on sites approved by the Board of Appeal.

(3) Tourist camps shall not be occupied by other than transient guests or bona fide tourists without the consent of the Board of Appeal.

(4) Any installation, erection, or use of electrical equipment shall be subject to the regulations of the "Electrical Energy Inspection Act."

(5) All structures shall conform with the provisions of the "Fire Marshal Act," and with any regulations pursuant thereto.

(6) No building shall be used for a purpose other than that for which a permit was issued, except with the written permission of the Inspector.

14. (1) The Inspector may withhold a permit for or order the removal of any structure the existence of which is in his opinion contrary to public interest. The Inspector, in his order for removal, shall name a time by which such structure shall be removed, and give the reasons for requiring such removal.

(2) The Inspector shall not issue a permit for any work on a building constructed or to be constructed on or moved to a parcel of land smaller than is required by the provisions of these regulations, unless said parcel was on record before March 9th, 1949, or is a part of a subdivision plan regularly approved by the approving officer.

15. If a permittee has not commenced to exercise his rights under the permit within six months from date of issue, the permit shall expire.

16. Where a person obtains a permit, he shall carry out the construction in accordance with the terms on which the permit is based, and not otherwise.

17. The Inspector shall have power to enter upon and inspect every building in course of construction in the area.

18. If any person is erecting a building without a permit, or that is not in accordance with the plans and specifications on which the permit is based, the Inspector may:—

(a) Order that person to cease building; or

(b) Order that person to conform to the plans and specifications; or

(c) Order that person to remove the building within a time-limit to be stated in the order.

19. Where the Inspector finds a building or structure to be:—

(a) In a dangerous condition, he may instruct the owner to make such repairs or reconstruction as he considers necessary to put said building into a safe condition. If, in the opinion of the Building Inspector, the existing building cannot be satisfactorily repaired, or if the owner refuses or neglects to carry out the repairs or reconstruction ordered by the Inspector, the Inspector may order the building demolished by a date specified in the order:

- (b) Not in conformity with the requirements specified in section 12 hereof for new buildings, he may, subject to the approval of the Board of Appeal, order the owner to make such alterations or additions or do anything that may be necessary to bring said building into conformity with these regulations by a date to be specified in the order.

20. Every person to whom an order is directed pursuant to these regulations shall obey the order.

Zoning

21. The area is divided into districts of the following classes:—

- (a) "Rural," shown uncoloured within the boundaries of the area bordered red on a plan bearing the words "This is the plan referred to in Regulation 21, clause (a), of the regulations applying to the Nanaimo District Regulated Area," and signed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs, deposited in the Department of Municipal Affairs;
- (b) "Residence," coloured yellow on said plan;
- (c) "Commercial," coloured purple on said plan;
- (d) "Industrial," coloured grey on said plan.

22. In a Rural class district:—

(1) No person shall use land for purposes other than:—

- (a) Agricultural uses, which shall include horticultural and associated uses;
- (b) Residence uses as permitted in Regulation 23 hereof;
- (c) Small industries for the primary utilization of natural products;
- (d) Other uses deemed by the Board of Appeal to be rural in nature, but not retail stores and similar commercial uses, or factories.

(2) Subdivision plans showing lots of less than two acres shall not be approved without the consent of the Board of Appeal.

23. In a Residence class district:—

(1) No person shall use land for uses other than:—

- (a) Residences, churches, schools, community halls, non-commercial greenhouses, and other uses deemed by the Board of Appeal to come within the meaning of "customary residential uses";
- (b) Uses permitted in section 22, subsection (1), clauses (a) and (d), other than the keeping of animals or fowl for breeding or commercial purposes; provided that where a rural use creates or is likely to create a public nuisance, the Medical Health Officer may order its discontinuance;
- (c) Accessory buildings located in a rear yard and uses customarily incident to the above uses; provided that a building to shelter domestic animals must be situated not less than one hundred feet from any well, spring, or creek, and as far from a dwelling on the same lot and the nearest dwelling on any adjacent lot as the shape and size of the lot on which it is situated permits.

(2) The keeping of animals or fowl for breeding or commercial purposes where such use existed on March 9th, 1949, may be continued as a non-conforming use and shall be subject to Regulation 29 hereof, but no similar use shall be established hereafter; provided, however, that this shall not apply to the keeping of pets unless the Board of Appeal otherwise decides.

(3) No person shall erect or place a building on a site unless there is compliance with the following conditions:—

- (a) The height of a building shall not exceed thirty-five feet or two and a half stories;
- (b) No building-site shall be occupied by buildings to more than thirty-three per cent of its area;
- (c) A building to be used for human habitation shall have a floor area of at least five hundred square feet;

(d) A rear yard shall be provided of not less than twenty-five per cent of the lot depth, and it shall in no case be less than twenty-five feet in depth;

(e) Two side yards shall be provided, each of which shall be not less in width than ten per cent of the width of the site, or five feet, whichever is greater; provided that no side yard need exceed ten feet in width; and further provided that where a building is not served by a side or rear lane, one side yard shall be at least ten feet in width and unobstructed and open to the sky.

(f) On a corner lot at the rear of which are lots fronting on the flanking street, the yard paralleling and adjacent to the flanking street shall be not less than twenty-five feet wide and shall extend the full depth of the lot, unless otherwise permitted by the Board of Appeal with the consent of the Minister of Public Works, in which case it shall be not less than twelve and a half feet wide;

(g) A front yard shall be provided not less than twenty-five feet in depth.

24. In a Commercial class district:—

(1) Land may be used for the purposes permitted in Rural and Residence class districts, and which conform to the height, yard, and area requirements of Regulation 23, or for retail stores and similar commercial uses, offices, and service-stations, but not for industrial establishments employing more than six permanent employees, or fruit processing or packing or similar plants, or other uses not deemed by the Board of Appeal to come within the meaning of the term "commercial uses."

(2) Where a building hereafter is erected or converted for retail or other commercial or business purposes where there is no public lane giving access to the rear of the building, provision shall be made for such access by means of a yard so that loading and unloading operations shall be conducted off the public highway.

(3) The height of any building hereafter erected shall be not more than thirty-five feet.

(4) For the purpose of Regulation 26 hereof, in the case of a building to be erected on a corner lot, other than one permitted in Regulations 22 and 23 hereof, each wall facing a street shall be deemed a main front wall.

25. In an Industrial class district, any lawful use is permitted; provided, however, that any buildings used for human habitation shall conform to Regulations 12 and 23 hereof; and further provided that no building and no land shall be used for any business or industry which is obnoxious by reason of the emission of smoke, gas, fumes, noise, or odour without the consent of the Local Board of Health as prescribed in the "Health Act."

26. (1) No person shall erect a building on a lot so that any main front wall, other than projecting steps, will be nearer to the street in front than twenty-five feet, unless otherwise permitted by the Board of Appeal with the consent of the Minister of Public Works.

(2) Side yards shall be unoccupied and unobstructed by buildings.

27. The height limitations contained herein shall not apply to windmills, silos, grain-elevators, and similar structures, nor shall they apply to chimneys, towers, and spires, occupying less than seven per cent of the site area.

28. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulations 22 and 23 hereof, a tourist camp may be established in any district subject to the approval of the Board of Appeal, but no part shall be used as a permanent residence unless it complies with the height, yard, and area requirements of Regulation 23 hereof.

(2) The Board of Appeal may permit the erection of an outdoor theatre in any district except residential; provided, however, that the said Board may impose such requirements as it thinks fit as a condition of such permission.

(3) No soil or gravel shall be removed from, or garbage or industrial waste deposited on, any lands in the area without the consent of the Board of Appeal, which may state the terms and conditions on which the consent is granted.

29. (1) Any use of land or buildings contrary to the provisions of Regulations 22 to 28, inclusive, but which existed prior to March 9th, 1949, may be continued, unless in the opinion of the Medical Health Officer and the Inspector such continuance is prejudicial to public health or interest.

(2) No non-conforming use which has been discontinued for thirty days shall be renewed.

(3) The lawful use of a building existing on March 9th, 1949, although such use does not conform to the provisions of Regulations 22 to 28, inclusive, may be extended throughout the building, but no structural alterations shall be made, nor shall the non-conforming use be carried beyond the limits of the existing building.

Removal of Buildings

30. If the Inspector is notified by the Medical Health Officer having jurisdiction in the area that any building is dangerous to health, the Inspector shall so notify the owner of the land, and may either:—

- (a) Require the owner to put the building in a safe condition within the period of time limited in the order; or
- (b) Require the owner or occupant of the building to vacate it within thirty days from the date of the order, and he may also order the owner to demolish the building within a time limited in the order.

Appeal

31. (1) Except in the case of subdivision requirements in respect of which provision for appeal is made in the "Land Registry Act," any person who considers that any decision of the Inspector made pursuant to these regulations will cause him undue hardship shall have a right of appeal by way of a hearing before the Board of Appeal.

(2) Any person exercising the right of appeal shall file with the secretary of the Board of Appeal, within ten days of the giving of any decision under the foregoing regulations, a written notice of appeal therefrom, which shall state clearly the grounds upon which the appeal is made. The appellant shall therein give an address to which all notices may be mailed.

(3) The secretary shall notify the chairman of the Board of Appeal of the notice of appeal, and the chairman shall set a date for the hearing of the appeal, which shall be within ten days of the filing of the notice thereof. Four days' notice of the hearing shall be mailed by the secretary, by registered mail, to the appellant at the address given in the notice of appeal. Other persons may be notified of the hearing as directed by the chairman. Where the appeal is for permission to establish a tourist camp as provided in section 28 hereof, the chairman shall designate the owners of land adjacent to the land referred to in the appeal whom he deems might be affected by the establishment of a tourist camp, and the secretary shall notify such persons of the hearing.

32. (1) The Board of Appeal shall consist of eight members, one of whom shall be the Government Agent at Nanaimo, who shall act as chairman, and seven of whom shall be appointed as follows, and who shall hold office for two years unless reappointed:—

- (a) One member only shall be appointed from each of the following districts—Lantzville, Wellington, Chase River, Departure Bay, Northfield, Five Acres, and East Wellington;
- (b) Each member shall be a resident registered land owner in the district from which he is appointed, and shall be recommended by resident registered land-owners in that district, and shall be appointed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs.

(2) If a member of the Board dies, resigns, or is removed from office, the Minister of Municipal Affairs shall appoint a member to serve for the unexpired portion of the term of the former member, and until such appointment the remaining members shall constitute the Board.

(3) Three members shall constitute a quorum.
33. The Board of Appeal may hear witnesses and take any other steps it may consider necessary to ensure a proper consideration.

34. The chairman of the Board of Appeal shall have authority to administer oaths to the witnesses on the appeal.

35. In disposing of appeals, the Board of Appeal may make such relaxations of these regulations, or of any order issued pursuant to these regulations, as the Board of Appeal considers necessary to ensure substantial justice, except that a change of classification of any district or part thereof may be made only by the Minister of Municipal Affairs on the recommendation of the Board of Appeal.

36. The decision in writing of a majority of the members of the Board of Appeal attending a regularly called meeting shall be the decision of the Board, and the Board shall not be required to re-adjudicate the same appeal on the same set of facts.

37. Where the decision of the Board of Appeal relaxes any of the regulations herein, it shall be competent for the Inspector to issue a permit or an order conforming to said decision.

38. The Inspector shall act as secretary to the Board of Appeal and shall keep a record of proceedings of all meetings of said Board. He shall forward a copy of the decision of the Board in respect to any appeal to the appellant concerned.

Penalty

39. Any person failing to carry out any provisions of an order issued pursuant to these regulations shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars for each ten days such violation continues.

2. Location.—Any septic or other sewage-disposal tank shall be located outside and be separated from any wall of a dwelling house. Any disposal-field or area shall be located as far as practicable from any dwelling, and in no case shall disposal-tiles be nearer at any point than ten feet to any dwelling. No sewage-disposal system shall be so located that it is liable to contaminate any existing domestic water-supply nor shall it be located under any roadway or traffic-way.

3. Materials.—The walls and floors of any septic tank or other sewage-disposal tank shall be of substantial water-tight construction.

4. Capacity.—No septic tank or other sewage-disposal tank shall have a capacity, below the invert of the outlet-pipe, of less than four hundred gallons, and shall be constructed according to plans and specifications to be seen in or obtained from the office of the Inspector, or shall be constructed according to other specifications submitted to and approved by the Inspector.

Adequate provision shall be made for any condition that may result in a flow of sewage greater than four hundred gallons per day in any dwelling or fifteen gallons per person per day in any school or similar establishment. When computations or assumptions are made as to the expected flow of sewage, the septic tank shall be sufficiently large to allow a detention period of twenty four hours, and shall contain in addition a reasonable space for sludge storage.

5. Design.—The digestion or treatment and dosing chambers of any septic tank or other sewage disposal tank shall be securely covered with concrete, metal, or wood, and shall be provided with adequate means of access.

The depth of the digestion chamber shall not be less than forty two inches below the level of the liquid outflow. A space of at least twelve inches shall be provided above the level of liquid outflow for scum formation and gas escape.

The inlet and outlet pipes shall be of a size not less than that of the sewer served, and shall be so provided with baffle-plates or with inverted sanitary tee-fittings as to prevent any excess turbulence or disturbance of the scum. The outlet baffle or tee-fitting shall extend not less than six inches above and fifteen inches below the water-line. 7. Dosing-siphons.—Dosing-chambers shall be provided with siphons or other discharging devices, and shall be automatic unless other means are provided for their proper operation. Such siphons or other discharging devices shall be made of corrosion-resistant material.

8. Storm Water.—Surface or storm water shall not be drained into any private sanitary sewage-disposal system.

9. Capacity of Tile Disposal-field.—In assessing the capacity of any private sub-surface irrigation-field for sewage, consideration shall be given to the character of the soil and the capacity of the dosing-chamber.

The length of open-joint tiling shall be not less than sixty lineal feet per dwelling in porous soils, and shall be increased in proportion to the number of bedrooms in excess of two and not more than five at the minimum rate of eighteen lineal feet per bedroom.

For schools and similar establishments whose daily requirements are of limited duration, the length of open-joint tiling shall be not less than two hundred and sixty lineal feet.

The volume of the disposal-tile and feeder-pipes shall in no case be less than one hundred and twenty per cent of the discharge volume of the dosing-chamber.

10. Tile Disposal-field in Impervious Soil.—No sub-surface sewage irrigation-field shall be constructed in clay or other heavy or impervious soil unless porous filtration media and adequate drainage are provided by removing such impervious soil and replacing it with porous filtering material, such as coarse sand, gravel, cinders, or broken stone, to a depth below the bottom of the disposal-tile of not less than eighteen inches and preferably not less than twenty-four inches.

11. Size of Open-joint Tile and Method of Laying.—Ordinary field drainage-tile of a size not less than four inches shall be used. They shall be laid on a firm base of broken stone, gravel, or on tile supports, and shall have a depth of cover not less than twelve inches nor greater than twenty-four inches. Open joints of one-eighth to three-eighths of an inch shall be left between tiles, and the upper half of such joints shall be covered by tarred paper, broken tile, or other approved protection. The tile-trench shall be back-filled with coarse sand, gravel, cinders, or broken stone of particle size not greater than one-half inch in any dimension, to a depth of six inches over the top and around the sides of the tile wherever the soil is less porous than coarse sand or gravel. Tiling shall not be laid under any roadway or traffic-way.

12. Grade of Tiling.—The open-joint tiling shall be laid at a small uniform down grade not exceeding two inches per one hundred feet.

13. Lateral Branches of Tiling.—Lateral branches of open-joint tiling shall be not less than three feet apart, and shall be connected to the liquid-effluent pipe or to a header by sewer-pipe branch fittings. Header-pipes shall be of a quality equal to that required for house sewer-pipes.

- (iii) Of moisture content not exceeding 20 per cent, or with a minimum specific gravity reading of 1.4033 at 68 degrees Fahrenheit referred to water at the same temperature.

Definition of Terms

5. (a) "Damage" means injury caused by turbidity, overheating, or any objectionable flavour or aroma from floral source, honey-dew, smoke taint, or other flavour or aroma foreign to honey, and in the case of granulated honey, foam in excess of minor frosting shall be considered damage.

(b) "Fairly free" in respect of foreign material means that honey or its surface is as clear as if strained at temperature of not more than 130 degrees Fahrenheit through a standard bolting cloth of 23 meshes to the inch. (Honey which at ordinary extracting-room temperature has been strained without pressure through a single thickness of ordinary fine cheesecloth and thereupon allowed to settle usually will be fairly free of foreign material.)

(c) "Free" in respect of foreign material means that the honey or its surface is as clear as if strained at temperature of not more than 130 degrees Fahrenheit through a standard bolting cloth of 86 meshes to the inch. (Honey which at ordinary extracting-room temperature has been strained without pressure through a double thickness of ordinary fine cheesecloth and thereupon allowed to settle usually will be free of foreign material.)

(d) "Serious damage" means any injury, defect, or deterioration seriously affecting the edibility, appearance, or shipping quality of the honey.

(e) "Turbidity" means cloudiness caused by pollen grains, minute air bubbles, finely divided wax particles, or other substances that detract from the clearness of the honey.

Tolerances

6. (a) The following tolerances shall be allowed in order to allow for variations incident to proper classification, grading, and packing:—

- (i) 10 per cent or less by count of containers in any tank-lot graded No. 1 may contain honey of a grade not lower than No. 2 Grade:
- (ii) 10 per cent or less by count of containers in any tank-lot graded No. 2 may contain honey of a grade not lower than No. 3 Grade:
- (iii) 10 per cent or less by count of containers in any tank-lot may contain honey of a colour falling within an adjoining class, provided that the total of allowable tolerances under (i), (ii), and (iii) shall not exceed 10 per cent.

(b) No tolerances shall be allowed:—

- (i) For any honey that is below the next lower class or grade:
- (ii) For serious damage in honey graded as No. 2 or No. 3.

(c) Where honey has been pasteurized in an establishment registered under the Dominion Department of Agriculture and marked as in these regulations, provided a moisture content not exceeding 20 per cent may be allowed.

Tank-lot and Package Marking

7. (a) Every tank-lot of honey shall be assigned a tank-lot number by the packer, such tank-lot numbers, commencing with number "1," to run consecutively throughout the calendar year.

(b) Every package of honey at the time of packing shall be marked at the apiary or packing plant with the number of the tank-lot from which it was filled and also with the final figure in the number of the year in which it was packed. Examples:—

$$\frac{1}{7} \text{ or } 1/7$$

with the upper or first number "1" indicating the lot number, and the lower or latter number "7" indicating the last figure of the year in which the honey was packed.

(c) Should a package be partially filled from one tank-lot and the filling completed from another tank-lot or other lots, the number of all tank-lots used shall be shown on such package. Examples:—

$$\frac{1}{7} - \frac{5}{7}, \text{ or } 1/7 - 5/7, \text{ or } \frac{1-5}{7}$$

Identification of Packer on First Dealer's Label

8. (a) Where honey is packed under the first dealer's label, a number may be used to identify the packer, provided the name and address and allotted number of such packer have been filed with the Department by the first dealer and the number used is the allotted number.

(b) Such number, when used, shall appear in brackets immediately following the first dealer's name and address. Example:—

John Doe Limited,
Vancouver, British Columbia.

Package Marks

9. (a) Every person who packs, transports, ships, advertises for sale, displays, sells, offers for sale any honey, or causes any honey to be packed, transported, shipped, advertised for sale, displayed, sold, or offered for sale, or has any honey in his possession for any of the said purposes, shall be responsible that each package is plainly and indelibly marked as follows, with:—

- (ii) Except in the case of barrels and half-barrels, confined to one side and one end of the package, which surfaces of the package shall bear no additional mark or stamp other than that which may be placed thereon by an Inspector.

Container Marks

10. (a) Every person who packs, transports, ships, advertises for sale, displays, sells, offers for sale, or has in possession for sale any honey shall be responsible that the main panel of the label of each container is marked as follows:—

(b) Glass containers:—

- (i) The word "Honey," which may appear on containers in other than block letters;
- (ii) The class and grade;
- (iii) The words "Liquid Honey" or "Liquid," provided the honey has been treated to preserve its original liquid form;

The foregoing information may be placed elsewhere than on the main panel of the label but shall appear in clearly legible letters of size reasonably in proportion to the size and design of the label.

(iii) The word "Honey," which may appear on containers in other than block letters:

(iv) The class and grade:

(v) The words "Liquid Honey" or "Liquid" provided the honey has been treated to preserve its original liquid form. This declaration, if not on the main panel, shall be placed on the lid or cover of the container in letters not less than one-quarter of an inch in height.

Such persons shall produce approved labels for inspection when so required.

(f) All manufacturers of stock-design labels shall submit to the Department two copies of all stock-design container labels intended for distribution to honey producers and packers, and no such label shall be manufactured or distributed unless or until approved. Manufacturers shall produce approved stock-design labels for inspection when so required.

(g) Manufacturers' stock-design labels may be approved en bloc, and in blank, for manufacturers, and persons using such labels will be held responsible for the proper completion of the label with such marks as are required by regulations; i.e., packer's name and address, classification and grade of contents.

(h) No person shall use any stock-design or other label indicating the origin of the honey as the Province of British Columbia on honey originating outside the Province of British Columbia.

(i) In the case of granulated honey only, the words "Fine" or "Medium" or "Coarse" may be added after the class and grade designation on containers and packages, to indicate the texture of the honey; e.g., "Golden No. 1 Coarse." Where such indication of texture is made, it shall be in letters of the same size as the class and grade marks.

Containers and Packages

11. (a) Honey shall be packed in clean, sound, and strongly constructed containers as may be approved by the Department, and of one or other of the following sizes: 5 ounces and smaller, 8 ounces, 12 ounces, 1 pound, 2 pounds, 4 pounds, 8 pounds, 30 pounds, 40 pounds, 60 pounds, 70 pounds (net weight), or half-barrels and barrels of unspecified sizes.

(b) Containers of honey shall be packed in clean, well-constructed packages in good condition and which are not defaced by old markings.

(c) Containers of extracted honey shall be securely closed by means of screw caps, friction top lids, bungs, or otherwise as may be approved by the Department.

(d) No person shall advertise, display, offer for sale, or sell, pack, or have in his possession any honey marked or otherwise represented as being pasteurized, unless such honey has, in fact, been pasteurized in a plant for which the operator thereof held a valid and subsisting certificate, or other evidence in writing, from the Dominion Department of Agriculture, showing that the equipment and premises used for such pasteurization have been registered with and approved of by the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Inspection

12. (a) Any person requiring honey to be inspected shall give notice to the resident Inspector.

(b) If there be no resident Inspector, such notice shall be given to the nearest Inspector or to the Department in sufficient time, prior to the date of shipment, to allow for the taking of samples for determination of moisture and other grade requirements.

(c) Inspection shall be made as facilities permit, and as nearly as practicable in the order in which applications therefor were received.

(d) The applicant for inspection shall arrange all honey to be inspected in separate tank-lots, in a suitable place, and be responsible for the opening and closing of all containers and packages as directed by the Inspector, and shall render, or cause to be rendered, to the Inspector such other assistance as may be required.

(e) (i) The Inspector shall examine not less than 10 per cent by count of the packages in any tank-lot, and shall draw a sample from any package he may select, upon which colour and moisture content will be determined for the entire tank-lot.

(ii) Where there is any noticeable difference in colour or quality in any tank-lot, the Inspector may refuse to inspect such tank-lot, or he may examine every package in the tank-lot and cause it to be divided into two or more lesser lots of similar colour and quality, and in such cases the Inspector shall impose a fee of five cents for each package in each tank-lot so divided, such fee to be collected in advance.

(f) (i) Where a shipment of honey is submitted for inspection and such shipment does not bear the tank-lot numbers as provided for by clause 7 of these regulations, or where there is any irregularity in the tank-lot numbers, the Inspector may refuse to inspect the shipment or he may examine each package in the shipment and cause the packages in such shipment to be divided into lots of apparently similar colour and quality.

(ii) The Inspector shall draw a sample from not less than 10 per cent of the packages in any such lots, from which samples a composite sample shall be made upon which colour and moisture content for the entire lot will be determined.

(iii) Where the Inspector causes such shipment to be divided as provided by clause 12, section (e) (ii), the Inspector shall impose a fee of five cents for each package in the shipment, such fee to be collected in advance.

(g) (i) Whenever a person financially interested in the honey is dissatisfied with the determination stated in the original inspection certificate, he may apply for appeal inspection.

(ii) Such application shall state the reasons therefor, and may be accompanied by a copy of any previous inspection certificate or other information possessed by the applicant regarding the class, grade, quality, or condition of the honey at the time of the inspection from which the appeal is made.

(iii) Where it appears that the reasons stated in such application are unsubstantial, or that the colour, grade, quality, or condition of the honey has materially changed, or that the honey cannot be made accessible for inspection, the application may be denied.

(h) Inspections requested to determine factors of class, grade, quality, or condition of honey which may have materially changed since the original or previous inspection, and requested for the purpose of obtaining an up-to-date certificate without questioning the correctness of the original or previous certificates, shall not be considered appeal inspections.

(i) Inspection certificates shall be completed and issued in quadruplicate; the original and one copy shall be retained for Departmental purposes, and the remaining two copies shall be delivered or mailed by the Inspector to the applicant, provided that where the shipper is resident in the Province of British Columbia, and such shipper is not the applicant, a copy of said certificate shall be delivered or mailed without payment of any extra fee to such shipper.

(j) An inspection certificate purporting to be signed by an Inspector shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in such certificate and conclusive evidence of the authority of the person giving or making the same, without any proof of appointment or signature.

Fees

13. (a) Except where other fees are provided in clause 12, sections (e) (ii) and (f) (iii), of these regulations, for each inspection requested and performed, a fee shall be paid by the applicant:—

(i) Upon delivery of the certificate; or

(ii) In advance of the inspection when so required by the Inspector.

(b) Inspection fees chargeable shall be as follows:—

(i) For shipping-point or destination inspection: One-sixteenth cent per pound, with a minimum fee of one dollar, provided that for a small quantity inspected together with a carlot quantity, such fee for such small quantity shall be one-twentieth cent per pound with a minimum fee of twenty-five cents:

(ii) For appeal inspection: One-thirtieth cent per pound with a minimum fee of two dollars, provided, however, that when such inspection proves the original inspection to have been incorrectly certified, no fee shall be charged, and the original certificate shall be deemed automatically annulled by issuance of the appeal certificate.

(c) The Minister may vary inspection fees to meet conditions at different points or where the services required are of a particular nature.

(d) The Minister may require reimbursement for travelling expenses, telegrams, telephones, or other items paid or incurred in connection with any inspection or reinspection made at any place other than an inspection point or other than where the request for such inspection is filed with an Inspector.

Sanitary Conditions

14. The following sanitary conditions shall be observed:—

(a) All buildings or rooms in which honey is extracted, packed, or stored shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition:

(b) All appliances, including extractors, pumps, tanks, uncapping-machines, or other equipment used in the handling of honey from the apiary to the final containers shall be clean and sanitary:

(c) All operations in connection with the preparation and packing of honey shall be carried on carefully and with strict cleanliness:

(d) All persons engaged in the preparation, handling, and packing of honey shall be free from any communicable disease, and the covering used by them to protect their clothing or persons shall be of material easily cleaned, and shall be kept reasonably clean:

(e) No lavatory, sink, cesspool, or buildings in which animals are housed shall be so situated or maintained as to permit any odours or fumes therefrom to pervade any room in which honey is being extracted, packed, handled, or stored:

(f) All honey intended to be used for food found by an Inspector in any apiary, packing plant, or warehouse to be in any way unfit for food purposes shall be placed under detention and held for disposal as the Minister may direct:

(g) All vehicles used for the transportation of honey shall be clean and sanitary to the satisfaction of the Inspector.

General

15. No person shall:—

(a) Pack, transport, advertise, display or offer for sale, or sell, or have in his possession for sale, any honey which has not been classified, graded, packed, and marked in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these regulations:

(b) Offer or accept for shipment or ship, transport, offer for sale, or sell any honey which is below the minimum grade, except to a person engaged in the operation of a manufacturing or processing plant:

- (c) Represent any honey which he packs, offers for sale, or sells in any container or package to be of a certain class or grade, unless such honey has been classified and graded and the container and package marked in accordance with these regulations:
- (d) Sell, expose, offer for sale, or have in his possession for sale or use for packing honey any used container or package previously marked under the Act or regulations, unless he first completely removes, erases, or obliterates all such previous markings:

 - (ii) Use any brand, stencil, or label designating the owner, packer, or shipper:

16. All honey and all honey containers and packages and labels in respect of which any offence against the Act, these regulations, or any other regulations under the Act is committed may be placed under detention by an Inspector at the risk and expense of the owner until such time as such honey or honey containers or packages or labels comply with the provisions of this Act or the regulations thereunder.

17. After a conviction of the owner by a Court of competent jurisdiction for any breach of these regulations, the honey, honey containers, packages, or labels so detained may be forfeited to Her Majesty in the right of the Province, and may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Minister may direct.

18. An Inspector detaining any lot of honey, or honey containers or packages or labels, may, at any time and at any place, attach thereto a numbered detention-tag, and no person shall sell or offer for sale, move, allow, or cause to be sold or moved any such honey or honey container or package or label, or remove or in any way deface, or cause to be removed or defaced, any detention-tag without the written authority of an Inspector or of the Minister.
